

P

rof. Pedro Tarazona Lafarga, Coordinator of the “Soft Condensed Matter and Biophysics” area at IFIMAC, has been awarded the Medal of the Royal Spanish Society of Physics (RSEF) due to the intensity of his research activity in the field of statistical physics, the originality of his approach and special recognition for his work at national and international levels”.